

Housing Discrimination is illegal!

The Fair Housing Act prohibits discrimination based on familial status. Some common forms of discrimination based on familial status include:

- Evicting a person for having a child or gaining custody of a child.
- Limited the number of children in the home.
- Requiring families with children to live in designated areas.
- Enforcing unreasonable rules targeted towards children.
- Charging extra deposits or rent because a child resides in the home.

If you or someone you know is facing discrimination in housing, please call the Fair Housing Council of Riverside County, Inc.
